

Grace

>> EV / Essentialis Vitae <<

"Beneath the surface of names and titles lies the in-between, a current, unseen but felt, where essence flows and true connection begins. In this liminal space, where identity softens, we meet—not as what we've done, but as who we are becoming."

UNCOMMON ASSET >> Grace is a Spiritual Strategist and Mystical Resiliency Advocate dedicated to holding holders in their most sacred and aligned work. With over 20 years of experience directing a nonprofit and managing wellness and mental health clinics, she is deeply attuned to the intricacies of resilience. An artist and seeker, Grace has pursued an eclectic spiritual journey, driven by a profound curiosity about consciousness.

POV >> To hire, collaborate or co-create solely on the basis of artificial nomenclature, roles, past titles, or accomplishments of mind misses something essential that exists beneath and in-between. We must learn to convey an essence of soul and exceptional capacities to one another in the marketplace. From this fuller expression, the quality, coherence and efficacy of our work, our offerings and contributions in the world can evolve. Let's connect here.

COLLABORATE >> While her current project with C*SCHOOL (see below) embodies everything she cherishes - a platform to support creative genius, nurture deep spiritual alignment, and express her mission to foster resilience and transformation in the world; she is also looking to round out her financial portfolio with an aligned part-time collaboration that allows her capacities to express, grow and shine.

CAPACITIES >> To thrive, dynamic workplaces and diverse teams must be supported and cultivated through a blend of organizational expertise and conscious depth, drawing on capacities that are not often considered.

- Paradox Keeper: A master of holding space for life's contradictions, finding harmony where opposites collide, and uncovering profound truths in the tension.
- Embodied Grace: Creating safety and sanctum at the intersection of our humanity and divine nature, offering a living definition of grace as wholeness in the face of duality.
- Mystical Normalizer: Bridging the seen and unseen, making the extraordinary feel natural and accessible, weaving the mystical into the fabric of daily work and life.
- Alignment Muse: Inspiring clarity, coherence, and alignment, guiding others toward their highest potential with a magnetic, creative presence.
- Frequency Keeper: An intuitive transmitter and amplifier of truth, broadcasting resonance and energy that uplifts, connects, and transforms.

REFERENCE >>

"With gentle inquiry, curious adaptability and bespoke approaches, Grace is able to bring individuals and groups into more alignment with their holistic vision, while providing them the tools and internal resources they need to sustain long term creative resilience.

I would highly recommend Grace to anyone ready to move more meaningfully and fully into their sovereignty and integrity by reclaiming the mystical curatorial power of their choices, partnerships, and beliefs - unapologetically owning their voice and creative potential to reveal to the world what is possible." - Charity VG

Mixed Materials Artist

Owner: By Grace Art Studio, Lafayette, CO. October 2023-Present

Grace presented Becoming Silk in March of 2024, a debut collection that weaves upcycled silk ribbon and hand-collected Pacific driftwood into a poetic exploration of transformation and surrender. Guided by the belief that working with a medium is a reciprocal relationship, Grace found silk to be a magical mirror—its fluid, rippling textures on canvas reflecting her own journey of softening rigid beliefs and embracing graceful change. Driftwood, with its history of tumbling through ocean waters, symbolizes purification and the revelation of our truest, most vulnerable selves. Together, these elements create a sculptural dialogue between the infinite, silk-like fluidity of spirit and the grounded, weathered beauty of the physical form, honoring Earth's waters as a source of life and inspiration.

PAST ENDEAVORS >>

Jewelry Artist, 11 Years

Owner: Lisa Jay Jewelry, CO. 2013-2024

Grace's jewelry design studio was deeply formative in shaping her identity as an artist. What began as a childhood hobby—sparked when her mother gifted her a set of jeweler's pliers at age 11—grew into a thriving creative business. She showcased her work at fine art shows, sold to galleries nationwide, and built meaningful connections with diverse clients. Those years taught Grace the power of creative vision, the joy of making, and the fulfillment of sharing her artistry with the world. To this day, she keeps those original pliers as a cherished symbol of her artistic journey.

New York + Denver Fashion Week Curator, 2 Years

Fashion Industry Ambassador: UPcyleD by Biche De Bere. CO, NY. 2022-2024

Grace met French fashion designer Nelly Biche De Bere in Paris and was deeply inspired by her passion for sustainable, slow fashion and her innovative use of upcycled denim. Captivated by Nelly's vision, she supported the debut of her UPcycled collection at New York Fashion Week, where she also walked the runway. The experience led to her curating a show of Nelly's collection at Denver Fashion Week, serving as an ambassador for the brand and helping to elevate its visibility through local media. This unforgettable journey affirmed her commitment to championing socially and ecologically responsible artistry.

Non-Profit Leader in Secondary Trauma + Resilience, 20+ Years

Development Director, Project Director, Grant Administrator, Training Coordinator, Trainer: VitalHearts, Lakewood, CO. 1999-2023

Grace's work centered on advancing the Secondary Trauma Resiliency Training, a program dedicated to empowering professionals in high-trauma fields such as healthcare, homelessness and FBI victim services. A cornerstone of this training, Letting Go of Attachment to Outcome, profoundly shaped her understanding of resilience, offering a framework for sustaining impactful work without being defined by external results. Serving many roles, she contributed to the program's success while cultivating her own practices in mindfulness and wellness to support long-term resilience. This experience now inspires her work at C*SCHOOL, where she integrates these principles to normalize mystical experiences, fostering creativity, consciousness, and collective strength in navigating life's complexities.

Mental Health Executive, 4 Years

Office Manager: Neuro-Therapy Clinic, Greenwood Village, CO. 2008-2012

Grace oversaw operations for a mental health practice specializing in advanced treatments for ADD, ADHD, traumatic brain injuries, and mood disorders. By leading a cohesive administrative team and supporting a dynamic group of clinicians, she discovered how mental health work further ignited her passion for resilience, as she nurtured both team dynamics and the clinic's mission of transformative care.

Wellness Clinic Operator, 6 Years

Operations Manager: MassageSpecialists.com, Boulder & Denver, CO. 2002-2008

Grace managed a large team of wellness providers and guided the clinic's expansion from one to three locations. Here she discovered her talent for fostering provider resilience and supporting practitioners in their vital healing work. This experience solidified her ability to create high-functioning, supportive workplaces dedicated to healing and resilience.
